

2N/3D Washington DC

Experience the city life of Washington, DC and get inspired by Museums, culturally diverse neighborhoods, bustling cafes, and shops. This city has it all.

DAY 1

Upon arrival at the airport, meet and greet our representative and transfer to the hotel. Check into your hotel and rest for a little while.

Now it's time to head to the National Mall for a fun-filled tour with Capital Segway Tours. While you cruise around the city, visit the Smithsonian Museum of Natural History and the National Air and Space Museum. Also, you can take electric vehicles from WeVenture, Washington, DC, and cruise around the town.

It's time to grab a quick lunch at one of the many food trucks that populate the National Mall. Head to Georgetown and soak in the serenity of the surroundings at the C&O Canal. Go for some upscale shopping or watch a show at the John F. Kennedy Center of Performing Arts.

The day has finally come to an end. It's time to have a scrumptious meal at the Watergate Hotel with a 360-degree view of the Kennedy Center, Potomac River, and the rest of DC.

DAY 2

New Day, New Discoveries

Get ready and leave for the newest and hippest neighborhood of DC, in the waterfront, popularly known as The Wharf.

Catch a concert at The Anthem or at Pearl Street Warehouse and go wild! Immerse in an interactive mission at the International Spy Museum. Take advantage of the Bottomless Mimosa Brunch cruise.

Dinner at the La Vie overlooking The Wharf.

DAY 3

Enjoy a light breakfast and head towards Rock Creek Park for horse riding, family picnics, and simply relaxing amidst nature. Get wild at one of the nation's most popular (and free) zoos, the Smithsonian National Zoo and find animals from all over the world in open exhibits, like the Great Ape House, Elephant Trails, Cheetah Conservation Station, and the newly reopened Bird House. Head to one of the many picnic sites within Rock Creek Park and enjoy a peaceful lunch with your loved ones.

Additional

Alternatively, you could take a day trip to Virginia, explore the vineyards, and shop at premium outlets.

Check out from the hotel and transfer to the hotel.
