WORLD WAR I MEMORIAL

The two-year-old memorial includes the cascading Peace Fountain, engraved tributes to World War I campaigns and battles and in-depth exhibits on the global conflict.

NATIONAL GALLERY OF ART

Through East and West buildings, the museum exhibits work from numerous countries and historical eras, including temporary displays that highlight distinctive artists, from Renaissance masters to modern-day marvels.

VIETNAM VETERANS MEMORIAL

Three parts make the site iconic: the Three Soldiers statue, the Vietnam Women's Memorial and the Vietnam Veterans Memorial Wall, also known as The Wall That Heals, which features 58,000 names.

U.S. NATIONAL ARBORETUM

The 446-acre property features the legendary U.S. Capitol Columns, the popular National Bonsai & Penjing Museum (home to a tree that survived Hiroshima) and blooming cherry blossoms in the spring.

NATIONAL MUSEUM OF AFRICAN AMERICAN HISTORY AND CULTURE

The five-floor museum covers the prevailing tragedies of slavery, the accomplishments of the ongoing struggle for civil rights and the tremendous courage, perseverance and bravery of Black icons and trailblazers.

NATIONAL MUSEUM OF AFRICAN ART

Home to the largest collection of art from the African continent in the U.S., the museum offers stunning artifacts and docent-led tours that transcend cultural boundaries.

NATIONAL ARCHIVES

The Rotunda for the Charters of Freedom contains the Declaration of Independence, the U.S. Constitution and the Bill of Rights and details on the composition and continuing significance of each.

U.S. CAPITOL BUILDING

Tour the Capitol Dome, visit the famous Rotunda and walk through the National Statuary Hall. Reservations can be made online or through the office of your local representative or senator.

SMITHSONIAN ANACOSTIA COMMUNITY MUSEUM

Focused on initiatives that impact at the ground level, the museum showcases untold stories of emboldened people who have reshaped their communities.

OLD STONE HOUSE & GEORGETOWN

ACCESSIBILITY

Information

Washington, DC is one of the most accessible cities in the world, and the city's hospitality industry stands ready to welcome visitors with special needs.

OFFICIAL VISITORS GUIDE

Limitless exploration

FOR MORE ACCESSIBLE TOURISM INFO, VISIT
WASHINGTON.ORG/DC-INFORMATION/ACCESSIBILITY

ACCESSIBILITY RESOURCES

Metro prides itself on being one of the most accessible public transportation systems in the world. In addition to a comprehensive website outlining services available to mobility-challenged visitors, Metro has also compiled a downloadable guide to accessible transportation options throughout the region.

ScootAround offers scooter and wheelchair rentals for a minimum of three days, weekly or for longer periods of time so that you can navigate the city and its sites in comfort and ease.

Orthopaedic Mobility Rentals provides daily, weekly or monthly rentals throughout the DC Metro area.

ACCESSIBLE ATTRACTIONS

While all of DC's attractions and cultural institutions are welcoming and accessible to visitors, the following attractions maintain dedicated web pages outlining their accessibility features, including ramps, sign language-interpreted tours and wheelchairs.

These attractions include:

- ▶ Hillwood Museum & Gardens
- ▶ International Spy Museum
- ▶ John F. Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts
- ▶ Library of Congress
- ▶ National Gallery of Art
- ▶ Shakespeare Theatre Company
Harman Center for the Arts
- ▶ Smithsonian Institution
- ▶ Washington National Cathedral
- ▶ White House
- ▶ Woolly Mammoth Theatre

On the National Mall and in the memorial parks, you'll find permit-only parking adjacent to the FDR Memorial. A limited number of wheelchairs are available for loan at the Vietnam Veterans Memorial. You can reach the Lincoln Memorial and Jefferson Memorial interiors using elevators located in the memorials' ground-level lobbies.

KNOW BEFORE YOU GO

ASL/LANGUAGE SERVICES

For travelers in need of language support and interpreting, download the Jeenie app on your smartphone or iPad for 24/7 assistance, including on-demand American Sign Language interpreting via video-chat.

GALLAUDET

DC's Gallaudet University has been the educational, political, social and economic engine of the deaf and signing community on a national and global scale for more than 150 years. Free, in-person campus tours are available.

METRO RAIL TRAVEL TIPS

- "Metro" not "Subway"
- Don't be an escaleftor: Walk on the left, stand on the right side of the escalators.
- Let riders off the train before entering.
- If the bell chimes, don't try to board; the doors close firmly and can separate you from your party.
- To travel on Metro, you will need a SmarTrip card, which can be purchased at any station or online at wmata.com.
- Use your SmarTrip card to enter/exit.
- You can now use your smartphone as a SmarTrip card. Visit wmata.com for more info.
